H. Application Process

Applications for a Fred R. Elias Graduation Award may be made at any time of the year, and are accessible only once per certificate, diploma or degree achieved. Applicants must have graduated after January 2011 in order to be eligible for this award; graduates from programs before this date are not eligible.

Application must include a written 1000-word essay including why you feel you deserve the award, your plans to use your education to benefit Nunavummiut.

All applications must be accompanied with supporting documents that demonstrate proof of graduation, such as a physical or electronic copy of a certificate, degree or diploma.

The award is to be granted by way of a competition that takes into account grades and an essay written by the applicant;

One award per course of study category is available, for a maximum of four awards per year; and

The award is only available persons who have graduated from business and management studies.
