E. Reporting Requirements

Applicants are advised that recipients of Inuit Initiatives funding are expected to report to KIA on the use of the funds within 90 days of an initiative's completion. Failure to provide a report will result in KIA withholding final payment until such time that a satisfactory report is submitted. Also, the recipient must provide information in the final report on the sources of their equity and how it was used to carry out the initiative.

Recipients that fail to meet reporting requirements, as set out in a contribution agreement, will lose the right to apply for further funding for a period of seven years, or until such time that the outstanding matter is addressed to the satisfaction of KIA.
